July 5th

Independence Hall

Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

James 2:18-20

"Remember Captain Moroni's rhetorically sarcastic question to Pahoran: 'Or do ye suppose that the Lord will still deliver us, while we . . . do not make use of the means which the Lord has provided for us?' Alma 60:21 Prayers in this situation may seem somewhat insincere to God, as they are manifestations of faith without works.'"

Book of Mormon:

This Week: July 6th-12th:

"The Virtue of the Word of God" Alma 30-31 pg106-109

Alma had unwavering faith that the word of God would have a more powerful effect upon the minds of the people than the sword, or anything else. Alma's words expressed eternal truth and drew upon the powers of heaven, and they invited heaven's blessing on those who went with him. These are valuable examples for followers of Christ today. We can find truth by trusting the virtue of the word of God. -- CFM-IF

Next Week: July 13th-July 19th:

"Plant This Word in Your Hearts" Alma 32-35 pg110-113

"Alma and Amulek boldly taught that prayer has more to do with what happens in our hearts than on a public platform. And if it doesn't lead to compassion toward those in need, it is "vain, and availeth nothing" Most important, it is an expression of faith in Jesus Christ, who offers redemption through His infinite and eternal sacrifice.

"Alma explained such faith is born of humility and a "desire to believe". It grows gradually, like a tree, and requires constant nourishment. How will you nourish your faith in Jesus Christ, so it will become "a tree springing up unto everlasting life"? CFM-IF
