"And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

"And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. . . .

Book of Mormon:

This Week: July 27 - August 2nd:

"The Great Plan of Happiness" Alma 39-42 pg118-121

"In these chapters, we observe Alma's boldness in condemning sin and his tenderness and love for Corianton. And ultimately, we sense Alma's confidence that the Savior "shall come to take away sins and declare glad tidings of salvation to those who repent. The fact that Corianton eventually returned to the work of the ministry can give us hope for forgiveness and redemption when we are troubled about our own sins or the sins of someone we love."

Next Week: August 3rd - 9th :

"Stand Fast in the Faith of Christ" Alma 43-52 pg122-125

It is natural to wonder why Mormon included these war stories when he had limited space on the plates. But there is value in his words beyond the descriptions of the strategy and tragedy of war. His words also prepare us for the war in which we are all enlisted, the war against the forces of evil. This war is very real, and the outcome affects our eternal lives. Like the Nephites, we are inspired by a better cause, which is "our God, our religion, and freedom, and our peace, our families. Moroni called this the cause of the Christians, the same cause we are fighting for today.
