Home Study: Come Follow Me - Book of Mormon: (CFM-IF)

This Week: August 10 - 16th:

"Preserved by his Marvelous Power" Alma 53-63 pg126-129

The army of Helaman had some advantages over the Lamanites, that had nothing to do with their numbers or military skill. They chose Helaman, a prophet, to lead them; they had been taught by their mothers that if they did not doubt, God would deliver them; and they had exceeding faith in that which they had been taught. As a result, they were protected by the miraculous power of God. Though all were wounded in battle, there was not one soul of them who did perish. So when life inflicts spiritual wounds on each of us, we can take courage — the message of the Army of Helaman is that there is a just God; and whosoever does not doubt, will be preserved by his marvelous power.

Next Week: August 17 - 23rd:

"The Rock of Our Redeemer" Helaman 1-6 pg130-133

The book of Helaman begins with serious difficulties among the people of the Nephites. We read about political intrigue, bands of robbers, rejection of the prophets, pride and disbelief throughout the land. But we also find examples like Nephi and Lehi and the more humble part of the people who not only survive but thrive spiritually. How did they stay strong while their civilization began to decline and fall apart? The same way any of us can stay strong in the mighty storms the devil sends — by building our lives upon the rock of our Redeemer, who is Christ, the Son of God.
