"ARISE, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising. Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee"

Isaiah 60:1-4

This Week: August 31st - September 6th:

"Glad Tidings of Great Joy" Helaman 13-16 pg138-141

The first time Samuel the Lamanite tried to share "glad tidings" in Zarahemla, he was rejected and cast out by the hard-hearted Nephites.

Just as Samuel did, we all encounter walls as we prepare the way of the Lord and strive to follow His prophets. And like Samuel, we too bear witness of Jesus Christ, who surely shall come, and invite all to believe on his name. Not everyone will listen, and some may actively oppose us. But those who believe in this message with faith in Christ find that it truly is glad tidings of great joy.

Next Week: September 7th - 13th:

"Lift Up Your Head and Be of Good Cheer " 3 Nephi 1-7 pg142-145

In some ways, it was an exciting time to be a believer in Jesus Christ. Prophecies were being fulfilled — great signs and miracles among the people indicated that the Savior would soon be born. On the other hand, it was also an anxious time for believers because; in spite of all the miracles, unbelievers insisted that the time was past for the Savior to be born. These people caused "a great uproar throughout the land" and even set a date to kill all the believers if the sign prophesied by Samuel the Lamanite — a night without darkness — did not appear.

In these trying circumstances, the prophet Nephi cried mightily to his God in behalf of his people. The Lord's response is inspiring to anyone who faces persecution or needs to know that light will overcome darkness: "Lift up your head and be of good cheer; . . . I will fulfill all that which I have caused to be spoken by the mouth of my holy prophets"
