Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward
September 13th

Behold, great and marvelous are the works of the Lord. How unsearchable are the depths of the mysteries of him; and it is impossible that man should find out all his ways. And no man knoweth of his ways save it be revealed unto him; wherefore, brethren, despise not the revelations of God.

Jacob 4:8

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Book of Mormon: (CFM-IF)

This Week: September 14th - 20th:

"Arise and Come Forth Unto Me" 3 Nephi 8-11 pg146-149

"Behold, I am Jesus Christ, whom the prophets testified shall come into the world"; With these words, the resurrected Savior introduced Himself, fulfilling over 600 years of Book of Mormon prophecies.

That appearance and that declaration, constituted the focal point, the supreme moment in the entire history of the Book of Mormon. It was the manifestation and the decree that had informed and inspired every Nephite prophet. . . . but here he actually was. The day of days! The God who turns every dark night into morning light had arrived"

Next Week: September 21st - 27th:

"I Am the Law and the Light" 3 Nephi 12-16 pg150-153

"Like Jesus's disciples who gathered at the mount in Galilee, the people who gathered at the temple at Bountiful had lived under the law of Moses. They had followed it because it pointed their souls to Christ, and now Christ stood before them, declaring a higher law. But even those of us who have never lived the law of Moses can recognize that the standard Jesus set for His disciples is a much higher law.

"I would that ye should be perfect," He declared. If this makes you feel inadequate, remember that Jesus also said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit who come unto me, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. This higher law is an invitation — another way of saying Come unto me and be ye saved. Like the law of Moses, this law points us to Christ — the only One who can save and perfect us. He said, "Behold, I am the law, and the light. Look unto me, and endure to the end, and ye shall live"
