

Sunday Services

Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

November 1st

The Lord told Ezekiel, "So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me." The prophets and apostles are the watchmen on the tower today, and it is our duty to warn the people....

America and the nations of the earth, as in times past, are at another crossroad. Where we go will determine our future and the future of our children and grandchildren. Said Lincoln: "We have grown in numbers, wealth, and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God..... We have become too proud to pray to the God that made us!"

My dear brothers and sisters, our nation was founded on prayer, it was preserved by prayer, and we need prayer again. I plead with you this evening to pray for this country, for our leaders, for our people.... Remember, this country was established and preserved by our founding fathers and mothers who repeatedly acknowledged the hand of God through prayer.

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Book of Mormon. (CFM-IF)

This Week November 1st thru 8th:

"I Speak Unto You as if Ye Were Present" - Mormon 7-9 pg170 - 173

Mormon and Moroni knew what it felt like to be alone in a wicked world. For Moroni the loneliness must have been especially severe after his father died in battle and the Nephites were destroyed. "I even remain alone," he wrote. "I have not friends nor whither to go". Things may have seemed hopeless, but Moroni found hope in his testimony of the Savior and his knowledge that "the eternal purposes of the Lord shall roll on".

And Moroni knew that a key role in those eternal purposes would be played by the Book of Mormon—the record he was now diligently completing, the record that would one day "shine forth out of darkness" and bring many people to the knowledge of Christ.

Moroni's faith in these promises made it possible for him to declare to the future readers of this book, I speak unto you as if ye were present and I know that ye shall have my words. Now we do have his words, and the Lord's work is rolling forth, in part because Mormon and Moroni stayed true to their mission, even when they were alone.
