Annual Waves of Grain

"Yea, all things which come of the earth, in the season thereof, are made for the benefit and the use of man, both to please the eye and to gladden the heart; Yea, for food and for raiment, for taste and for smell, to strengthen the body and to enliven the soul.

And it pleaseth God that he hath given all these things unto man; for unto this end were they made to be used, with judgment, not to excess, neither by extortion.

And in nothing doth man offend God, or against none is his wrath kindled, save those who confess not his hand in all things, and obey not His commandments."

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Book of Mormon. (CFM-IF)

This Week November 16th thru 22nd:

"That Evil May Be Done Away" - Ether 6-11 pg178 - 181

Hundreds of years after the Jaredites were destroyed, the Nephites discovered the ruins of their ancient civilization. Among these ruins was a mysterious record — plates of "pure gold" that were "filled with engravings". Today you have an abridgment of this record, translated into your language, and it's called the book of Ether.

As you read about the rise and the tragic fall of the Jaredites, you'll find many sorrowful moments. But don't overlook the joy of learning lessons from this history. After all, as Moroni wrote, "it is wisdom in God that these things should be shown unto you", for if we can learn from the failures and the successes of the Jaredites, "evil may be done away, and . . . the time may come that Satan may have no power upon the hearts of the children of men" (Ether 8:26).
