Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

November 29th

Counting our blessings is far better than re-counting our problems. No matter our situation, showing gratitude for our privileges is a fast acting and long lasting Spiritual prescription....

We can all give thanks for the beauties of the Earth and the majesty of the Heavens, that give us an inkling, of the vastness of eternity.

We can give thanks for the gift of life, for our amazing bodies and minds, that allow us to grow and learn. We can give thanks for art, literature and music, that nurture our souls.

We can give thanks for the opportunity to repent, start over, make amends, and build character. We can give thanks for our families, friends and loved ones. We can give thanks for the opportunity to help, cherish and serve one another, which makes life so much more meaningful.

We can even give thanks for our trials, from which we learn things we would not otherwise know. Most of all, we can give thanks unto God, the father of our spirits.

This Week November 30th thru December 6th:

"To Keep Them In the Right Way" - Moroni 1-6 pg186 - 189

After finishing his father's record of the Nephites and abridging the record of the Jaredites, Moroni thought that his record-keeping work was done. What more was there to say about two nations that were utterly destroyed? But Moroni had seen our times, and he was inspired to "write a few more things, that perhaps they may be of worth in some future day".

He knew that widespread apostasy was coming, bringing with it confusion about priesthood ordinances and religion in general. This may be why he gave clarifying details about the sacrament, baptism, conferring the gift of the Holy Ghost, and the blessings of gathering with fellow believers to keep each other in the right way, relying alone upon the merits of Christ, who was the author and the finisher of our faith. Precious insights like these give us reason to be thankful that the Lord preserved Moroni's life so he could write a few more things.
