

Sunday Services

Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

January 24th

Brothers and sisters, how can we become the men and women — the Christlike servants - the Lord needs us to be? How can we find answers to questions that perplex us? If Joseph Smith's transcendent experience in the Sacred Grove teaches us anything, it is that the heavens are open and that God speaks to His children.

I urge you to stretch beyond your current spiritual ability to receive personal revelation, for the Lord has promised that "if thou shalt seek, thou shalt receive revelation upon revelation, knowledge upon knowledge, that thou mayest know the mysteries and peaceable things — that which bringeth joy, that which bringeth life eternal".

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

January 25th - 31st "This Is the Spirit of Revelation"

pg18-21 Doctrine & Covenants 6-9

A young schoolteacher named Oliver Cowdery took a teaching job in Manchester, New York, and stayed with the family of Lucy and Joseph Smith Sr. Oliver had heard about their son Joseph; and Oliver, who considered himself a seeker of truth, wanted to know more.

The Smiths described visits from angels, an ancient record, and the gift to translate by the power of God. Oliver was fascinated. Could it be true? Lucy and Joseph Sr. gave him advice that applies to anyone seeking truth: pray and ask the Lord.

Oliver did, and the Lord answered, speaking peace and reassurance to Oliver's mind. Revelation, Oliver discovered, can be personal—something he would learn even more profoundly in the coming months.

Revelation isn't just for prophets. It is for anyone who desires it and seeks it. Oliver didn't know everything yet, but he knew enough to take his next step. The Lord was doing something important through Joseph Smith, and Oliver wanted to be part of it.
