

Sunday Services
Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward
January 31st

Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Isaiah 40:28-31

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

February 1-7 "That You May Come Off Conqueror"

Pg23-26: Doctrine & Covenants 10-11

A question naturally arose: What should Joseph Smith and Oliver Cowdery do about those pages of the translation that had been lost? But the Lord could see something that they could not - wicked men were plotting to alter the words on those pages to cast doubt on Joseph's inspired work.

God had a plan to thwart Satan's efforts and compensate for what was lost. This plan was put into motion thousands of years earlier when the prophet Nephi felt inspired to create a second record that covered the same time period.

Later, Mormon was inspired to include this record in the Book of Mormon "for a wise purpose known to the Lord".

My wisdom, the Lord said to Joseph, is greater than the cunning of the devil. That's a reassuring message in a day like ours, when the adversary's ongoing efforts to weaken faith are intensifying. Like Joseph, we can be faithful and continue on in the work God has called us to do. Then we will find that He has already provided a way, so that the gates of hell shall not prevail against us.
