Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

February 28th

Each of these blessings has come as a result of seeking and heeding the promptings of the Holy Ghost. Said President Lorenzo Snow, "This is the grand privilege of every Latter-day Saint ... that it is our right to have the manifestations of the Spirit every day of our lives."

One of the things the Spirit has repeatedly impressed upon my mind since my new calling as President of the Church, is how willing the Lord is to reveal His mind and will. The privilege of receiving revelation is one of the greatest gifts of God to His children. Through the manifestations of the Holy Ghost, the Lord will assist us in all our righteous pursuits.

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

March 1-7 "The Rise of the Church of Christ"

Pg40-43; Doctrine & Covenants 20-22

The Prophet Joseph Smith's work of translating the Book of Mormon was now complete. But the work of the Restoration had only just begun. It was clear from earlier revelations that in addition to restoring doctrine and priesthood authority, the Lord wanted to restore a formal organization — His Church. So on April 6, 1830, more than 40 believers crowded into the Whitmer family's log home in Fayette, New York, to witness the organization of the Church of Jesus Christ.

Still, some people wonder, why is an organized Church necessary? The answer may be found, at least in part, in the revelations connected with that first Church meeting in 1830. Here, blessings are described that would not be possible if the true Church of Jesus Christ had not been "regularly organized and established" in the latter days.
