

Sunday Services
Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward
March 14th

Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

1 John 3:16-19

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

March 15-21 "All Things Must Be Done in Order"

Pg49-52; Doctrine & Covenants 27-28

Revelation was still a relatively new concept for the Saints as the Restoration continued to unfold. Early Church members knew that the Prophet Joseph Smith could receive revelation for the Church, but could others? Questions like this became critical when Hiram Page, one of the Eight Witnesses of the gold plates, believed he had received revelations for the Church.

Many faithful Saints believed that these revelations were from God. The Lord responded by teaching that in His Church "all things must be done in order, which meant having only one "appointed to receive commandments and revelations" for the entire Church.

Even so, others could receive personal revelation for their part in the Lord's work. In fact, the Lord's words to Oliver Cowdery are a reminder to all of us: "It shall be given thee.... what thou shalt do"
