Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward
March 21st

In the midst of affliction my table is spread.
With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er.
With perfume and oil thou anointest my head.
Oh, what shall I ask of thy providence more?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come; Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature; shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8: 35,37-39

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

March 22-28 "Jesus Christ Will Gather His People"

Pg53-56: Doctrine & Covenants 29

Even though the Church of Jesus Christ had been organized in 1830, many gospel truths were still to be revealed, and several early Church members had questions. They had read prophecies in the Book of Mormon about the gathering of Israel and the building up of Zion. How would that happen? ...Other people wondered about the Fall of Adam and Eve and spiritual death.

The Lord welcomed these questions in 1830: "Whatsoever ye shall ask in faith," He told the Saints, "being united in prayer according to my command, ye shall receive." And He welcomes our questions today; He's just waiting for us to ask Him in prayer. In fact, as the doctrinally rich revelation in Doctrine and Covenants 29 shows, He sometimes responds by imparting truth and knowledge beyond the questions we asked in the first place.
