

Sunday Services
Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward
April 11th

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth:

He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment... for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.....

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

Isaiah 53:6-11

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

April 12-18 "If Ye Are Not One Ye Are Not Mine"

Pg57 - 60 ;

Doctrine & Covenants 76; 110

To the early Saints, the Church was more than a place to hear some preaching on Sunday. Throughout His revelations to Joseph Smith, the Lord described the Church with words like cause, kingdom, Zion, and, quite often, work. That may have been part of what attracted many early members to the Church. As much as they loved the Church's restored doctrine, many also wanted something they could dedicate their lives to.

Even so, the Lord's 1830 command to the Saints to gather in Ohio was not easy for some to follow. For people like Phebe Carter, it meant leaving comfortable homes for an unfamiliar frontier. Today we can see clearly what those Saints could see only with the eye of faith: the Lord had great blessings waiting for them in Ohio.

The need to gather to Ohio has long since passed, but Saints today still unite around the same cause, the same work: to "bring forth Zion". Like those early Saints, we forsake the cares of the world because we trust the Lord's promise: "You shall receive ...a blessing so great as you never have known"
