The Resurrected Jesus on the Road to Emmaus

And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus..... And they talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.....

And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

Luke 24:16-32

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

April 19-25 "My Law to Govern My Church"

Pg72-75;

Doctrine & Covenants 41-44

The rapid growth of the Church in 1830 and 1831 — especially the rush of new converts coming to Kirtland, Ohio — was exciting and encouraging to the Saints. But it also presented some challenges. How do you unify a quickly expanding body of believers, especially when they are bringing with them doctrine and practices from their previous faiths? For example, when Joseph Smith arrived in Kirtland in early February 1831, he found new members sharing common property in a genuine attempt to imitate the New Testament Christians

The Lord made some important corrections and clarifications on this and other topics, largely through a revelation recorded in Doctrine and Covenants 42, that He called "my law to govern my church"

In this revelation, we learn truths that are fundamental in establishing the Lord's Church in the latter days, including a significant promise making clear that there is always more to learn: "If thou shalt ask, thou shalt receive revelation upon revelation, knowledge upon knowledge"
