Jesus - With the Woman at the Well

I came unto mine own, and mine own received me not; but unto as many as received me gave I power to do many miracles, and to become the sons of God; and even unto them that believed on my name gave I power to obtain eternal life.

And even so I have sent mine everlasting covenant into the world, to be a light to the world, and to be a standard for my people, and for the Gentiles to seek to it, and to be a messenger before my face to prepare the way before me.

Wherefore, come ye unto it, and with him that cometh I will reason as with men in days of old. . . .

Home Study: Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

May 3rd- May 9th "Seek Ye Earnestly the Best Gifts" Pg80-83;

Doctrine & Covenants 46-48

As Parley P. Pratt [and others] left Kirtland and moved on to other fields of labor; they left over one hundred converts who had plenty of zeal but little experience or direction. There were no instructional handbooks, no leadership training meetings, no general conference broadcasts. There weren't even very many copies of the Book of Mormon to go around.

Many of these new believers had been drawn to the restored gospel by the promise of marvelous manifestations of the Spirit, especially those they knew about from studying the New Testament. Soon, some unusual expressions of worship were introduced into their Church meetings. Many found it hard to discern which manifestations were of the Spirit and which were not.

Seeing the confusion, Joseph Smith prayed for help. The Lord's answer is equally valuable today, when people often reject or ignore the things of the Spirit. The Lord revealed that spiritual manifestations are real and clarified what they are — gifts from a loving Heavenly Father, "given for the benefit of those who love Him and keep all His commandments".
