Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

May 16th 2021

[Joseph Smith's] life asked and answered the question "Do you believe God speaks to man?" In all else that he accomplished in his brief 38 years, Joseph left us above all else the resolute legacy of divine revelation — not a single, isolated revelation without evidence or consequence, and not a mild sort of inspiration seeping into the minds of all good people everywhere, but specific, documented, ongoing direction from God....

We do thank thee, O God, for a prophet. We give thanks for that morning in the spring of 1820 when the Father and the Son appeared in glory to a 14-year-old boy. We give thanks for that morning when Peter, James, and John came to restore the keys of the holy priesthood and all the offices in it.

Home Study: Come Follow Me – Doctrine and Covenants

May 17- 23rd "A Faithful, a Just, and a wise Steward" Pg88-91;

Doctrine & Covenants 51-57

For Church members in the 1830s, gathering the Saints and building the city of Zion were spiritual as well as temporal works, with many practical matters to address: Someone needed to purchase and distribute land where the Saints could settle. Someone needed to print books and other publications. And someone needed to run a store to provide goods to those in Zion. In the revelations recorded in Doctrine and Covenants 51-57, the Lord appointed and instructed people to handle these tasks .

But while skills in such things as purchasing land, printing, and running a store are valuable to the temporal work of building Zion, these revelations also teach that the Lord desires His Saints to become spiritually worthy to be called a Zion people. He calls each of us to be a faithful, a just, and a wise steward, having a contrite spirit, standing fast in our appointed responsibilities.
