May 23rd 2021

If I were to ask my good Christian friends how they unquestionably know the Bible is the word of God, I do not believe they would cite archaeological discoveries or linguistic connections with ancient Hebrew or Greek as their prime evidence; rather, they would make reference to the Spirit.

It always comes back to the Spirit. The Spirit that helps me know the Bible is true is the very same Spirit that helps me know the Book of Mormon is true. The Spirit is the decisive, determining factor; not archaeology, not linguistics, not DNA, and certainly not the theories of man. The Spirit is the only witness that is sure and certain and infallible....

[If you gain a testimony] of the Book of Mormon? it will become your personal iron rod. The mists of darkness may come and the unanswered questions may arise, but through it all you will have your iron rod to cling to — to keep you on the straight and narrow path that leads to eternal life.

Doctrine & Covenants 58-59

When the elders of the Church first saw the site of the city of Zion — Independence, Missouri — it was not what they expected. Some thought they would find a thriving, industrious community with a strong group of Saints. Instead they found a sparsely populated outpost, lacking the civilization they were used to, and inhabited by rough frontier settlers rather than Saints. It turned out that the Lord wasn't asking them just to come to Zion — He wanted them to build it.

When our expectations do not match reality, we can remember what the Lord told the Saints in 1831: "Ye cannot behold with your natural eyes, for the present time, the design of your God . . . and the glory which shall follow after much tribulation." Yes, life is full of tribulation, even wickedness, but we can "bring to pass much righteousness"; for the power is in us.
