FOR, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be as stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

But unto you that fear my name shall the Son of righteousness arise with healing in his wings. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers.

Malachi 4:1-2, 5-6

Home Study: Come Follow Me – Doctrine and Covenants

May 31st – June 6th "All Flesh is in Mine Hand" Pg 96-99;

Doctrine & Covenants 60-62

In June 1831, the Lord organized some of the elders into companionships and sent them to Jackson County with this charge: "Preach by the way". Many of the elders did so diligently, but others did not. So when they returned to Kirtland, the Lord said "With some I am not well pleased, for they will not open their mouths, but they hide the talent which I have given unto them because of the fear of man".

Many of us can feel sympathy for these elders — we may also feel hesitant to open our mouths and share the gospel. We too may be impeded by the fear of man; or doubt our abilities. But the Lord "knoweth the weakness of man and how to succor us.

Scattered throughout these revelations are reassurances that can help us overcome fears we might be facing: "I, the Lord, rule in the heavens above." "I am able to make you holy." "All flesh is in mine hand." And "be of good cheer little children; for I am in your midst."
