Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

June 6th 2021

Spring Hill, Davies County, Missouri

When the earth shall be transfigured, even according to the pattern which was shown unto mine apostles upon the mount; of which account the fulness ye have not yet received.

And now, verily I say unto you, that as I said that I would make known my will unto you, behold I will make it known unto you not by the way of commandment, for there are many who observe not to keep my commandments.

But unto him that keepeth my commandments I will give the mysteries of my kingdom, and the same shall be in him a well of living water, springing up unto everlasting life.

Home Study: Come Follow Me – Doctrine and Covenants

June 7th - 13th "That Which Cometh from Above Is Sacred" Pg 100-103
Doctrine & Covenants 63

The site for the city of Zion had been chosen. Church leaders had visited the area and dedicated it as a gathering place for the Saints. According to Joseph Smith's history, the land of Zion was now the most important temporal object in view.

But views on Zion were mixed. Many Saints were eager to start gathering in Missouri. On the other hand, people like Ezra Booth were disappointed with the land of Zion and made their views known. In fact, when Joseph returned to Kirtland from Missouri, he found that dissension and apostasy had crept into the Church while he was away.

It was in this setting that the revelation in Doctrine and Covenants 63 was received. Here the Lord addressed purchasing land and moving the Saints to Missouri. But among such practical matters was a timely reminder: "I, the Lord, utter my voice, and it shall be obeyed" (verse 5). His voice, His will, His command – all of which comes from above; should not be treated cynically or casually. It is sacred, and must be spoken with care.
