Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

July 18th 2021

And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. . . .

Isaiah 2:2-3

Home Study: Come Follow Me – Doctrine and Covenants

July 19th – 25th

"Where Much is Given Much is Required"

pg 125 – 128; Doctrine & Covenants 81-83

The Lord called Jesse Gause to be a counselor to Joseph Smith in what is now called the First Presidency. But Jesse Gause did not serve faithfully. So Frederick G. Williams was called to replace him, and Brother Gause's name was replaced with Brother Williams's name in the revelation (D&C 81).

That may seem like a minor detail, but it implies a significant truth: Most of the revelations in the Doctrine and Covenants are addressed to specific people, but we can always seek ways to apply them to ourselves. The Lord's counsel to Frederick G. Williams to "strengthen the feeble knees" can turn our minds to the people we might strengthen....

The Lord's counsel can turn our minds to our own covenants. And the Lord's promise that He would "be bound when ye do what I say" can remind us of His promises to us when we obey. That's as it should be, for the Lord also declared, "What I say unto one I say unto all".
