Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward Chapel - In the Strength of the Hills

Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping all the commandments of God.

Joseph Smith

Consider on the blessed and happy state of those that keep the commandments of God. For behold, they are blessed in all things, both temporal and spiritual; and if they hold out faithful to the end they are received into heaven, that thereby they may dwell with God in a state of never-ending happiness. O remember, remember that these things are true; for the Lord God hath spoken it.

Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants

August 2nd - 8th "Stand Ye in Holy Places" pg 133 - 136; D&C 85 - 87

On December 25, 1832, Joseph Smith's mind was occupied with the threat of war. South Carolina had just defied the United States government and was preparing for battle. And the Lord revealed to Joseph that this was only the beginning: War, He declared, will be poured out upon all nations.

But revelation is not always fulfilled at the time or in the way we expect. South Carolina and the U.S. government reached a compromise then. But nearly 30 years later, South Carolina did rebel and civil war followed.

Since then, war throughout the world has caused the earth to mourn. While the prophecy was ultimately fulfilled, the value of this revelation is less in predicting when calamity will come and more in teaching what to do when it does. The counsel is the same in 1831, 1861, and 2021: Stand ye in holy places, and be not moved.
