Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

September 5th 2021

My beloved brothers and sisters, fourteen words: "Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man," -

And so can you. You are a royal generation. The heavenly grandstands are cheering you on. We are fast coming to the close of this game. The opposition is real and is scoring. But we have scored, we are scoring, and we will score in the future. The Lord is our coach and manager. His team will win, and we can be a valiant part of it if we so desire.

Rise up, O youth of Zion! You hardly realize the great divine potential that lies within you. May you all follow your leader, Jesus Christ, and increase mentally, physically, spiritually, and socially, I pray for all of you in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Come Follow Me - Doctrine and Covenants September 6 - 12th

"Be Still and Know that I Am God" pg 153; D&C 98-101

For the Saints in the 1830s, Independence Missouri was literally the promised land. It was "the center place of Zion — the city of God on earth — which they were making great sacrifices to build. To them, the gathering of Saints there was an exciting and glorious prelude to the Second Coming.

But their neighbors in the area saw things differently. They took issue with the claim that God had given the land to the Saints, and they were uncomfortable with the political, economic, and social consequences of so many people from an unfamiliar religion moving into the area so quickly. Soon concern turned into threats, and threats turned into persecution and violence..... Joseph Smith was over 800 miles away in Kirtland, and this news took weeks to reach him.

But the Lord knew what was happening, and He revealed to His Prophet principles of peace and encouragement that would comfort the Saints — principles that can also help us when we face persecution, when our righteous desires go unfulfilled, or when we need a reminder that our daily afflictions will eventually work together for our good.
