When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

For thou hast made him a little lower than the gods, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth !

Psalms 8:3-9

Home Study This Week: Class discussion on a following Sunday
"It Is Thy House, A Place of Holiness" pg 166; D&C 109-110

The doors to the Kirtland Temple weren't supposed to open until 8:00 on the morning of March 27, 1836. But Saints who were hoping to attend the dedication services started lining up as early as 7:00. When the pews and the aisles quickly filled with eager worshippers, Joseph Smith suggested an overflow location. When that filled up, a second session was planned.

And it wasn't just the living who were anxious to be present. Multiple witnesses testified that they saw angels, inside the temple and even on the roof, during and after the dedication. It really did seem that the Armies of Heaven had come to sing and to shout with the Latter-day Saints

Why the great excitement—on both sides of the veil? The promise that the Saints would be endowed with power from on high was one reason they had gathered to Ohio in the first place. And greater things were promised for the future. "This," the Lord declared, "is the beginning of the blessing which shall be poured out upon the heads of my people."
