. . .And again, verily I say unto you, blessed is my servant Hyrum Smith; for I, the Lord, love him because of the integrity of his heart, and because he loveth that which is right before me, saith the Lord. . .

And again, verily I say unto you, my servant George Miller is without guile; he may be trusted because of the integrity of his heart; and for the love which he has to my testimony, I, the Lord, love him. . .

Come Follow Me - Old Testament: March 21st - 27th

"I Have Remembered My Covenant" p54; Exodus 1 - 6

The invitation to live in Egypt literally saved Jacob's family. But after hundreds of years, their descendants were enslaved and terrorized by a new pharaoh who knew not Joseph. It would have been natural for the Israelites to wonder why God allowed this to happen to His covenant people. Did He remember the covenant He had made with them? Were they still His people? Could He see how much they were suffering?

There may be times when you've felt like asking similar questions. You might wonder, Does God know what I'm going through? Can He hear my pleas for help? The story in Exodus of Israel's deliverance from Egypt answers such questions clearly:

God does not forget His people. He remembers His covenants with us and will fulfill them in His own time and way. I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, He declares. "I am the Lord your God, which bringeth you out from under your burdens"
