Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

April 10th 2022

My call today, dear brothers and sisters, is to end conflicts that are raging in your heart, your home, and your life. Bury any and all inclinations to hurt others.... The Savior commanded us to turn the other cheek, to love our enemies, and to pray for those who spitefully use us. We are followers of the Prince of Peace. Now more than ever, we need the peace only He can bring.

How can we expect peace to exist in the world when we are not individually seeking peace and harmony? Brothers and sisters, I know what I'm suggesting is not easy. But followers of Jesus Christ should set the example for all the world to follow. I plead with you to do all you can to end personal conflicts that are currently raging in your hearts and in your lives.

Come Follow Me - Old Testament: March 28th - April 3rd

"He Will Swallow Up Death in Victory" p67; Easter Lesson

The life of Jesus Christ is central to all human history. What does that mean? -- In part, it surely means that the Savior's life influences the eternal destiny of every human being who has ever lived or ever will. You might also say that the life and mission of Jesus Christ, culminating in His Resurrection on that first Easter Sunday, connects all of God's people throughout history:

Those who were born before Christ looked forward to Him with faith, and those born after look back on Him with faith. As we read Old Testament accounts and prophecies, we don't ever see the name Jesus Christ. But we do see the evidence of the ancient believers' faith in, and longing for, their Messiah and Redeemer. So we who are invited to remember Him can feel a connection with those who looked forward to Him. For truly Jesus Christ has borne the iniquity of us all, and in Christ shall all be made alive.
