The Resurrected Jesus, on the Road to Emmaus

And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread and blessed it and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were opened and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

Luke 24: 30-32

Come Follow Me - Old Testament: May 2nd - May 8th

"Holiness to the Lord" pg 82; Exodus 35-40; Leviticus 1: 16; 19

Leaving Egypt didn't fully accomplish God's purposes for the children of Israel. Even future prosperity in the promised land wasn't God's ultimate objective. What God really wanted for His people: "Ye shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am holy."

How did God seek to make His people holy when they had known nothing but captivity for generations? He commanded them to create a place of holiness to the Lord - a tabernacle in the wilderness. He gave them covenants and laws to guide their actions and change their hearts.

And when they fell short, He commanded them to make animal sacrifices to symbolize atonement for sin. All of this meant to point their minds, their hearts, and their lives toward the Savior. He is the true path to holiness, for the Israelites and for us. We have all spent some time in the captivity of sin, and we are all invited to repent - to leave sin behind and follow Jesus Christ, who has promised, - "I am able to make you holy."
