The Ascension of Jesus Christ

"And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go."

"Be Strong and of Good Courage" page 97; Joshua 1-8; 23-24

It had taken several generations, but the Lord's promise was about to be fulfilled: the children of Israel were on the verge of inheriting the promised land. But in their way stood the Jordan River, the walls of Jericho, and a wicked but mighty people who had rejected the Lord.

On top of that, their beloved leader Moses was gone. The situation may have made some Israelites feel weak and fearful. But the Lord said, "Be strong and of a good courage."

Why should they feel this way? Not because of their own strength — or even Moses's or Joshua's — but because "the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest".

When we have our own rivers to cross and walls to bring down, wonderful things can happen in our lives, because "it is the Lord who will do wonders among us"
