Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD:
And the fruit of the womb is his reward.
As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man;
So are children of the youth.
Happy is he who hath his quiver full of them.
Psalms 127: 3-5

Come Follow Me - Old Testament: June 20th - 26th

"Thy Kingdom Shall Be Established For Ever" page 113; 2 Samuel 5-7;

2 Samuel 11-12; 1 Kings 3; 8; 11

King David's reign started out with so much promise. His undaunted faith in defeating Goliath was legendary. As king, he secured Jerusalem as his capital and united Israel. The kingdom had never been stronger. And yet David gave in to temptation and lost his spiritual power.

The reign of David's son Solomon likewise started out with so much promise. His divinely received wisdom and discernment were also legendary. As king, he extended Israel's borders and built a magnificent temple to the Lord. The kingdom had never been stronger. And yet Solomon foolishly allowed his heart to be turned away to other gods.

What can we learn from these tragic stories? Perhaps one lesson is that regardless of our past experiences, our spiritual strength depends on the choices we make today. We can also see in these accounts that it isn't our own strength or courage or wisdom that will save us — it is the Lord's. These stories show us that Israel's, and our true hope is not in mortal kings, but in Jesus Christ, the Eternal King, who will forgive the sins of His people; if we turn again to Him.
