June 26th 2022

And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. . . .

Home Study This Week: Class discussion on a following Sunday

Come Follow Me - Old Testament: June 27th - July 3rd

"If the Lord Be God, Follow Him" page 117; 1Kings 17-19

The house of Israel was in disarray. The unity and prosperity achieved under David and Solomon were long past, and the nation's covenant relationship with the Lord was, for many a distant memory. The Kingdom of Israel had divided, with ten tribes forming the Northern Kingdom of Israel and two tribes forming the Southern Kingdom of Judah.

Both kingdoms were unstable spiritually, led by kings who violated their covenants and influenced others to do likewise. Apostasy was especially severe in the Northern Kingdom, where King Ahab encouraged Israel to worship the false god Baal.

It was in this setting that the prophet Elijah was called to preach. The account of his ministry makes clear that personal faith in the Lord can thrive among the righteous, even in a wicked environment. Sometimes the Lord responds to such faith with impressive public miracles.

But He also works quiet, private miracles, like meeting the personal needs of a faithful widow and her son. Most often His miracles are so individual that they are known only to you — for example, when the Lord reveals Himself and His will through a still small voice. cfm-if
