Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

July 24, 2022

Around noon, Saturday July 24th, 1847, the few wagons emerged from Emigration Canyon. President Brigham Young expressed his full satisfaction in the appearance of the valley as a resting place for the Saints.

Years later, Elder Woodruff described President Young's reaction in more detail. "While gazing upon the scene before us, he was enwrapped in vision for several minutes. He had seen the valley before in vision, and upon this occasion he saw the future glory of Zion and of Israel, as they would be, planted in the valleys of these mountains. When the vision had passed, he said, 'It is enough. This is the right place. Drive on.'"

Come Follow Me - Old Testament: July 25 - 31
 "Thou Art Come...For Such a Time as This", Page 136 Esther

Many events in the book of Esther might seem like luck or coincidence. How else do you explain how an orphaned Jewish girl became the queen of Persia at just the right time to save her people from being slaughtered? What are the chances that Esther's cousin Mordecai would just happen to overhear a plot to assassinate the king? Were these coincidences, or were they part of a divine plan? Elder Ronald A. Rasband noted: "What may appear to be a random chance is, in fact, overseen by a loving Father in Heaven....The Lord is in the small details of our lives" ("By Divine Design," Ensign or Liahona, Nov.2017, 56). We may not always recognize the Lord's influence in these "small details." But we learn from Esther's experience that He can guide our path and prepare us "for such a time" (Esther 4:14) when we can be instruments in His hands to fulfill His purposes.
