

Sunday Services

Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

November 13, 2022

The blessings of the temple are available to us all - young and old & everyone in between. It is in the temple that we remove who we really are and see with clarity who we really can become.

-Sister Jean A Stevens

Come Follow Me - Old Testament:
"SEEK THE LORD, AND YE SHALL LIVE"
Amos; Obadiah

Nov 14 - 20
Page 204

God chose Abraham's seed to be His covenant people so that they would "be a blessing" to all people (see Genesis 12:2-3). But instead, by the time of Amos's ministry, many of the covenant people were oppressing the poor and ignoring the prophets, making their acts of worship empty and meaningless (see Amos 2:6-16). True, the nations surrounding them were also guilty of great sins (see Amos 1; 2:1-5), but that has never been an excuse for God's people (see Amos 3:2). So God sent a herdsman from Judah named Amos to preach repentance to the Kingdom of Israel. Later, God also declared through the prophet Obadiah that although the Kingdom of Judah had been destroyed, the Lord would gather and bless His people again. The covenant people had strayed from the Lord, both prophets testified, but they would not be cast off forever. When God reveals His secrets to His servants the prophets (see Amos 3:7), we can take it as a sign that He still wants to help us live up to the covenants we made with Him.
