Come Follow Me - New Testament: March 6 - 12

"THESE TWELVE JESUS SENT FORTH" Page 41

Matthew 9 - 10; Mark 5; Luke 9

Word of Jesus's healing miracles was spreading quickly. Multitudes followed Him, hoping for relief from their sicknesses. But when the Savior looked upon the multitudes, He saw more than their physical ailments. Filled with compassion, He saw "sheep having no shepherd" (Matthew 9:36). "The harvest truly is plenteous," He observed, "but the labourers are few" (Matthew 9:37). So He called twelve Apostles, "gave them power," and sent them to teach and minister "to the lost sheep of the house of Israel" (Matthew 10:1, 6). Today the need for more laborers to serve Heavenly Father's children is just as great. There are still twelve Apostles, but there are more disciples of Jesus Christ than ever before—people who can declare to all the world, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 10:7).
