Come Follow Me - New Testament: March 13 - 19

"I WILL GIVE YOU REST" Page 45

Matthew 11 - 12; Luke 11

In many ways, the Pharisees and scribes had made worshipping Jehovah burdensome. They often emphasized strict rules over eternal truths. Rules about the Sabbath day, which was meant to be a day of rest, were themselves a heavy burden.

And then, Jehovah Himself came among His people. He taught them that the true purpose of religion is not to create burdens but to relieve them. He taught that God gives us commandments, including the one to honor the Sabbath, not to oppress us but to bless us. Yes, the way to God is strait and narrow, but the Lord came to announce that we need not walk it alone. "Come unto me," He pleaded. His invitation, to all who feel "heavy laden" for any reason, is to stand beside Him, to bind ourselves to Him, and to let Him share our burdens. His promise is "Ye shall find rest unto your souls." Compared to the alternatives—trying to carry on alone or relying on mortal solutions—His "yoke is easy, and [His] burden is light." (Matthew 11:28–30.)
