The Sacrament Ordinance includes an offering and sacrifice with deep, introspective and personal symbolism...a broken heart and a contrite spirit.

What actually happens when we go to the Temple to perform ordinances for our departed family?

"Every man that has been baptized and belongs to the Kingdom, has a right to be baptized for those who are gone before, and, as soon as the Law of the Gospel is obeyed here by their friends, who act as proxy for them, the Lord has administrators there to set them free"[!] [Joseph Smith, Sunday Morning, May 12, 1844]

Come Follow Me - New Testament: March 27 - April 2

“BE NOT AFRAID” Page 53

Matthew 14; Mark 6; John 5 - 6

What could have inspired Peter to leave the safety of his boat in the middle of the Sea of Galilee during a boisterous storm? What led him to believe that if Jesus could walk on water, he could too? We can't know for certain, but perhaps Peter understood that the Son of God came not just to do wonderful things for the people but to empower people like Peter to do wonderful things too. Jesus's invitation, after all, was "Come, follow me" (Luke 18:22). Peter had accepted this invitation once, and he was willing to accept it again, even if it meant facing his fears and doing something that seemed impossible. Perhaps the Lord will not ask us to step out of a boat in the middle of a storm or contribute our meager supply of bread when thousands need to eat, but He may ask us to accept directions even when we don't fully understand them. Whatever His invitations to us may be, they may sometimes seem surprising or even frightening. But miracles can happen if we, like Peter, will set aside our fears, our doubts, and our limited understanding and follow Him in faith.
