Come Follow Me - New Testament: April 10 - 16

“THOU ART CHRIST” Page 61

Matthew 15 - 17; Mark 7 - 9

Isn't it strange that the Pharisees and Sadducees would demand that Jesus show them "a sign from heaven"? Weren't His many well-known miracles enough? What about His powerful teachings or the multiple ways He had fulfilled ancient prophecies? Their demand was prompted not by a lack of signs but by an unwillingness to "discern the signs" and accept them. (See Matthew 16:1-4.) Peter, like the Pharisees and Sadducees, witnessed the Savior's miracles and heard His teachings. But Peter's definitive testimony, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God," did not come through his physical senses—his "flesh and blood." His testimony was revealed to him by our "Father which is in heaven." Revelation is the rock upon which the Savior built His Church then and now—revelation from heaven to His servants. And this is the rock upon which we can build our discipleship—revelation that Jesus is the Christ and that His servants hold "the keys of the kingdom." When we are built upon this foundation, "the gates of hell shall not prevail against [us]" (Matthew 16:15-19).
