Announcements

Week of May 14

Stake Institute:

Thursday, May 18th. 7pm in the Stake Center Chapel
“The Savior atoned for the sins of all mankind”

Family History:

Would you like help with your Family History? Contact Stephen or Evelyn Wight at (801) 889 - 9507. They can assist in setting up and using your family search / Family Tree account, basic research, and in preparing your family members for Temple ordinances.

Family History Corner

Ordinances Ready—There are many ways to find your own family names to take to the temple. The easiest, that usually doesn't involve any research, is to use Ordinances Ready. This will describe how to do it on your computer at home. Later, we'll show you how to use Ordinances Ready on your phone. The following “roadmap” of clicks is like a street by street description of how to get to the nearest temple. However, once you have driven it you should be able to easily find your way ever after!

How It Works—First, log on to either your FamilySearch Home Page or your Family Tree. Click on the “Temple” from the menu at the top near the FamilySearch logo. From the dropdown menu click “Ordinances Ready”. On the Ordinances Ready page, click the “Type” of ordinance you want to do, select the name[s] in the checkbox, scroll to the bottom right to click “Take to the Temple” and then print your card[s]...it's that easy!

Come Follow Me - New Testament: May 15 - 21

“BEHOLD, THY KING COMETH”

Matthew 21- 23; Mark 11; Luke 19 - 20; John 12

The Savior was hungry after traveling from Bethany to Jerusalem, and a fig tree in the distance looked like a source of food. But as Jesus approached the tree, He found that it bore no fruit (see Matthew 21:17–20; Mark 11:12–14, 20). In a way, the fig tree was like the hypocritical religious leaders in Jerusalem: their empty teachings and outward demonstrations of holiness gave no spiritual nourishment. The Pharisees and scribes appeared to keep many commandments yet missed the two greatest commandments: to love God and to love thy neighbor as thyself (see Matthew 22:34–40; 23:23).

In contrast, many people had begun to recognize good fruit in Jesus’s teachings. When He arrived at Jerusalem, they welcomed Him with branches cut from trees to pave His path, rejoicing that at long last, as ancient prophecy said, “Thy King cometh” (Zechariah 9:9). As you read this week, think about the fruits of the Savior’s teachings and atoning sacrifice in your life and how you can bring “forth much fruit” (John 12:24).
