Family History Corner

Ordinances Ready—There are many ways to find your own family names to take to the temple. The easiest, that usually doesn't involve any research, is to use Ordinances Ready. This will describe how to do it on your computer at home. Later, we'll show you how to use Ordinances Ready on your phone. The following "roadmap" of clicks is like a street by street description of how to get to the nearest temple. However, once you have driven it you should be able to easily find your way ever after!

How It Works—First, log on to either your FamilySearch Home Page or your Family Tree. Click on the "Temple" from the menu at the top near the FamilySearch logo. From the dropdown menu click "Ordinances Ready". On the Ordinances Ready page, click the "Type" of ordinance you want to do, select the name[s] in the checkbox, scroll to the bottom right to click "Take to the Temple" and then print your card[s]...it's that easy!

Come Follow Me - New Testament: May 22 - 28

"THE SON OF MAN SHALL COME" Page 85

Joseph Smith—Matthew 1; Matthew 24-25; Mark 12-13; Luke 21

Jesus's disciples must have found His prophecy startling: the mighty temple of Jerusalem, the spiritual and cultural center of the Jewish people, would be destroyed so utterly that "there [would] not be left ...one stone upon another." Naturally the disciples wanted to know more. "When shall these things be?" they asked. "And what is the sign of thy coming?" (Joseph Smith—Matthew 1:2–4). The Savior's answers revealed that the great destruction coming to Jerusalem—a prophecy fulfilled in AD 70—would be relatively small compared to the signs of His coming in the last days. Things that seem even more stable than the temple in Jerusalem will prove to be temporary—the sun, the moon, the stars, the nations, and the sea. Even "the powers of heaven shall be shaken" (Joseph Smith—Matthew 1:33). If we are spiritually aware, this commotion can teach us to put our trust in something truly permanent. As Jesus promised, "Heaven and earth shall pass away; yet my words shall not pass away....And whoso treasureth up my word, shall not be deceived" (Joseph Smith—Matthew 1:35, 37).
