“The strait and narrow path, though clearly marked, is a path, not a freeway nor an escalator. Indeed, there are times when the only way the strait and narrow path can be followed is on one’s knees!”

Family History:

Would you like help with your Family History? Contact Stephen or Evelyn Wight at (801) 889 - 9507. They can assist in setting up and using your family search / Family Tree account, basic research, and in preparing your family members for Temple ordinances.

Family History Corner

Ordinances Ready—There are many ways to find your own family names to take to the temple. The easiest, that usually doesn't involve any research, is to use Ordinances Ready. This will describe how to do it on your computer at home. Later, we'll show you how to use Ordinances Ready on your phone. The following "roadmap" of clicks is like a street by street description of how to get to the nearest temple. However, once you have driven it you should be able to easily find your way ever after!

How It Works—First, log on to either your FamilySearch Home Page or your Family Tree. Click on the "Temple" from the menu at the top near the FamilySearch logo. From the dropdown menu click "Ordinances Ready". On the Ordinances Ready page, click the "Type" of ordinance you want to do, select the name[s] in the checkbox, scroll to the bottom right to click "Take to the Temple" and then print your card[s]...it's that easy!

Matthew 26; Mark 14; John 13

The day before He died, Jesus gave His disciples something to remember Him by. He "took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; for this is my blood" (Matthew 26:26–28).

That happened about 2,000 years ago, in a place most of us will never see, in a language few of us can understand. But now, every Sunday in our own meeting places, priesthood holders, authorized to act in the name of Jesus Christ, do what He once did. They take bread and water, bless it, and give it to each of us, His disciples. It's a simple act—can there be anything simpler, more fundamental, than eating bread and drinking water? But that bread and water are sacred to us because they help us remember Him. They're our way of saying, "I'll never forget Him"—not just, "I'll never forget what I've read about His teachings and His life." Rather, we are saying, "I'll never forget what He did for me." "I'll never forget how He rescued me when I cried out for help." And "I'll never forget His commitment to me and my commitment to Him—the covenant we have made."
