“HE IS RISEN”

Matthew 28; Mark 16; Luke 24; John 20 - 21

To many observers, the death of Jesus of Nazareth may have seemed like an ironic end to a remarkable life. Wasn't this the man who raised Lazarus from the dead? Hadn't He withstood the murderous threats from the Pharisees time after time? He had demonstrated power to heal blindness, leprosy, and palsy. The very winds and the seas obeyed Him. And yet here He was, hanging from a cross, declaring, "It is finished" (John 19:30). There may have been some sincere surprise in the mocking words "He saved others; himself he cannot save" (Matthew 27:42). But we know that Jesus's death was not the end of the story. We know that the silence of the tomb was temporary and that Christ's saving work was just beginning. He is found today not "among the dead" but among the living (Luke 24:5). His teachings would not be silenced, for His loyal disciples would preach the gospel in "all nations," trusting His promise that He would be "with [them] always, even unto the end of the world" (Matthew 28:19-20).
