There are many ways to find your own family names to take to the temple. The easiest, that usually doesn't involve any research, is to use ORDINANCES READY

Previously, we described how to use Ordinances Ready on your home computer. This will describe how to do it on your smart phone:

To use the Ordinances Ready feature on your phone, you first want to download the FamilySearch Tree app (it's free!). Select the "Temple" icon at the bottom and choose Ordinances Ready. Choose whatever ordinance you are planning to participate in at the temple.

Short on time? Since most people now watch TV while also looking at their phones, you can utilize Ordinances Ready and all the other good things on the FamilySearch Tree app while watching your favorite TV program. Try clicking around the app and get to know your family. They are interested in you!

Come Follow Me - New Testament: July 17 - 23

“THE WORD OF GOD GREW AND MULTIPLIED” Page 117

Acts 10 - 11

During His mortal ministry, Jesus Christ often challenged people’s long-held traditions and beliefs. This didn’t stop after He ascended into heaven, as He continued to guide His Church by revelation. For example, during Jesus’s life His disciples preached the gospel only to fellow Jews. But soon after the Savior died and Peter became the leader of the Church on earth, Jesus Christ revealed to Peter that the time was right for the gospel to be preached to non-Jews. The idea of sharing the gospel with Gentiles doesn’t seem surprising today, so what’s the lesson in this account for us? Perhaps one lesson is that in both the ancient and modern Church, a loving Savior guides His chosen leaders (see Amos 3:7; Doctrine and Covenants 1:38). Continuing revelation is a vital sign of the true and living Church of Jesus Christ. Like Peter, we must be willing to accept continuing revelation and live “by every word of God” (Luke 4:4), including “all that [He] has revealed, all that He does now reveal,” and the “many great and important things” He will yet reveal “pertaining to the Kingdom of God” (Articles of Faith 1:9).
