Butterfield Canyon 7th Ward

July 23, 2023

We must be sure that the legacy of faith received from the pioneers who came before us is never lost. Let their heroic lives touch our hearts, and especially the hearts of the youth, so the fire of true testimony and unwavering love for the Lord and His Church will blaze brightly within each one of us as it did in our faithful pioneers.

-M Russell Ballard

Family History Corner

There are many ways to find your own family names to take to the temple. The easiest, that usually doesn't involve any research, is to use

ORDINANCES READY

Previously, we described how to use Ordinances Ready on your home computer. This will describe how to do it on your smart phone:

To use the Ordinances Ready feature on your phone, you first want to download the FamilySearch Tree app (it's free!). Select the "Temple" icon at the bottom and choose Ordinances Ready. Choose whatever ordinance you are planning to participate in at the temple.

Short on time? Since most people now watch TV while also looking at their phones, you can utilize Ordinances Ready and all the other good things on the FamilySearch Tree app while watching your favorite TV program. Try clicking around the app and get to know your family. They are interested in you!

Come Follow Me - New Testament: July 24 - 30

"The Lord had called us for to preach the Gospel" Page 121

Acts 16 - 21

Among the Lord's final words to His Apostles was the commandment "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19-20). While the Apostles didn't quite make it to all nations, Acts 16-21 does show that Paul and his companions did make remarkable progress in establishing the Church. They taught, baptized, and conferred the gift of the Holy Ghost. They performed miracles, even raising a man from the dead, and foretold the Great Apostasy (Acts 20:7-12, 28-31). And the work they started continues with living Apostles today, along with devoted disciples like you, who are helping fulfill the Savior's commission in ways Paul never could have imagined. Perhaps you are aware of people who do not know their Heavenly Father or His gospel. Perhaps you have felt that your "spirit was stirred in [you]" to share with them what you know about Him (Acts 17:16). If you follow Paul's example of humility and boldness in sharing the gospel, you may find someone "whose heart the Lord [has] opened" (Acts 16:14).
