There are many ways to find your own family names to take to the temple. The easiest, that usually doesn't involve any research, is to use

ORDINANCES READY

Previously, we described how to use Ordinances Ready on your home computer. This will describe how to do it on your smart phone:

To use the Ordinances Ready feature on your phone, you first want to download the FamilySearch Tree app (it's free!). Select the "Temple" icon at the bottom and choose Ordinances Ready. Choose whatever ordinance you are planning to participate in at the temple.

Short on time? Since most people now watch TV while also looking at their phones, you can utilize Ordinances Ready and all the other good things on the FamilySearch Tree app while watching your favorite TV program. Try clicking around the app and get to know your family. They are interested in you!

Come Follow Me - New Testament: August 14 - 20

“OVERCOME EVIL WITH GOOD” Page 133

Romans 7 - 16

As he opened his epistle to the Romans, Paul greeted Church members by calling them “beloved of God” who were “called to be saints.” He remarked that their “faith [was] spoken of throughout the whole world” (Romans 1:7–8). Even though Paul spent much of his epistle correcting false ideas and flawed behaviors, it seems he also wanted to assure these new Christian converts that they truly were Saints who were beloved of God. His tender counsel blesses all of us who struggle to feel God’s love and for whom becoming a Saint may feel out of reach. With humble empathy, Paul acknowledged that he had felt like a “wretched man” at times (Romans 7:24), but the gospel of Jesus Christ had given him power to overcome sin (see Joseph Smith Translation, Romans 7:22–27 [in the Bible appendix]). With that power, the Savior’s redeeming power, we can “overcome evil”—both evil in the world and evil in ourselves—“with good” (Romans 12:21).
