Family History Corner

On national radio recently Terryl Givens [Maxwell Institute, BYU] was asked why members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints do baptisms for the dead. His reply was: "Latter-day Saints believe that at the last day Heavenly Father will prepare a wedding feast for the entirety of the human family. He wants no empty seats, and we don't think you have to come, but as Latter-day Saints we believe it is our privilege to put everyone's name on the guest list, and that is what we do when we baptize for the dead. And the radio host said, 'what an incredibly generous God...how do I get my name on that list?' Now certainly he was half joking but I felt he was half serious and recognized in that moment that this is a vision of a God of unprecedented generosity, that this is a Gospel vision of unprecedented ambition."

"BE YE RECONCILED TO GOD" Page 149

2 Corinthians 1 - 7

Sometimes, being a Church leader means having to say some difficult things. This was true in Paul's day just as it is today. Apparently a previous letter from Paul to the Corinthian Saints included chastening and caused hurt feelings. In the letter that became 2 Corinthians, he tried to explain what had motivated his harsh words: "Out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you" (2 Corinthians 2:4). When you're on the receiving end of some correction from a leader, it definitely helps to know that it is inspired by Christlike love. And even in those cases where it is not, if we're willing to see others with the kind of love Paul felt, it's easier to respond appropriately to any offenses. As Elder Jeffrey R. Holland counseled, "Be kind regarding human frailty—your own as well as that of those who serve with you in a Church led by volunteer, mortal men and women. Except in the case of His only perfect Begotten Son, imperfect people are all God has ever had to work with" ("Lord, I Believe," Ensign or Liahona, May 2013, 94).
