Home Study This Week: Class discussion on the following Sunday

Come Follow Me - New Testament: Sept 18 - 24
 "GOD LOVETH A CHEERFUL GIVER" Page 153
 2 Corinthians 8 - 13

What would you do if you heard that a congregation of Saints in another area was struggling in poverty? This was the situation that Paul described to the Corinthian Saints in 2 Corinthians 8-9. He hoped to persuade the Corinthian Saints to donate some of their abundance to Saints in need. But beyond a request for donations, Paul's words also contain profound truths about giving: "Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver" (2 Corinthians 9:7). In our day, there are still Saints throughout the world who are in need of help. Sometimes the most we can do for them is to fast and donate fast offerings. In other cases, our giving can be more direct and personal. Whatever forms our sacrifices take, it's worth examining our motivations for giving. Are our sacrifices expressions of love? After all, it's love that makes a giver cheerful.

Family History Corner

On national radio recently Terry Givens [Maxwell Institute, BYU] was asked why members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints do baptisms for the dead. His reply was: "Latter-day Saints believe that at the last day Heavenly Father will prepare a wedding feast for the entirety of the human family. He wants no empty seats, and we don't think you have to come, but as Latter-day Saints we believe it is our privilege to put everyone's name on the guest list, and that is what we do when we baptize for the dead. And the radio host said, 'what an incredibly generous God...how do I get my name on that list?' Now certainly he was half joking, but I felt he was half serious and recognized in that moment that this is a vision of a God of unprecedented generosity, that this is a Gospel vision of unprecedented ambition."
